

Yuehong Zhu bio

Yuehong Zhu is currently pursuing a Doctor of Musical Arts degree in piano performance at the University of North Texas, where he also serves as a teaching assistant under the guidance of Pamela Mia Paul. He earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees in piano performance, graduating with honors, from the Zhejiang Conservatory of Music.

His artistic development has been shaped through master classes with distinguished pianists and pedagogues including Douglas Humpherys, Christopher Taylor, Boaz Sharon, Michael Bukhman, Danwen Wei, Chen Jiang, and Yunlin Yang.

Yuehong has earned recognition in numerous piano competitions. Most recently, he received Third Prize at the Memphis International Piano Competition in 2025. His previous honors include First Prize at the Shanghai International Youth Piano Competition, the Special Gold Prize at the Sixth China–South Korea International Music Competition, and the YAMAHA Asian Music Scholarship.

In addition to his performing career, Yuehong is the founder of a music education and production company in Hangzhou. In 2021, he won a national entrepreneurship competition in China, earning investment support from the Hangzhou municipal government.
