Eligibility

- The 2026 competition is open to all pianists 18 - 30 years of age as of the March 7, 2026, audition date.
- Competitors must be enrolled at an accredited university, college, or conservatory as of March 7, 2026, audition date.
- Competitors may not be students of any of the judges. See the symphony website www.lewisvillesymphony.org for information on the judges.

Prize Winners

- The First Place Winner will receive $2,000 plus an appearance as soloist with the Lewisville Lake Symphony on the opening concert of the 2026-2027 season. The prize money will be awarded on the night of the performance.
- The Second Place Winner will receive $1,000, to be awarded on the day of the competition.
- The Third Place Winner will receive $500, to be awarded on the day of the competition.

- If for any reason the First Place Winner is unable to perform with the Symphony on the opening season 2026-2027 concert, he/she automatically forfeits the prize money and Symphony performance. The First Place award will fall to the Second Place winner.
- Winners will be announced at the conclusion of the March 7, 2026, Final Live Auditions Round at a reception in the Graham Green Room of the UNT College of Music.
- The decision of the judges is final.
- The symphony cannot pay transportation or housing expenses for the Live Final Round or the symphony performance.

The Competition - Preliminary/Pre-screening Round

- The deadline for all applications to the Competition is 11:59 PM CST January 2, 2026. Late applications will not be accepted.
- The preliminary round will be judged from YouTube videos submitted by applicants no later than midnight January 2, 2026. Contestants will be notified of the preliminary round results by email on or before January 15, 2026. The Competition - Final Round (Saturday, March 7, 2026)

- The final round will be a live audition on March 9, 2024, before a panel of distinguished judges on the campus of the University of North Texas in Denton, Texas. The entire concerto is required for the final round.
- Contestants will remain anonymous (including name, school, and teacher) to the judges and the audience until the results are announced. In order to maintain maximum anonymity, the contestant's teacher may not be the accompanist for either the YouTube round or the Final round.

- Up to 10 contestants from the Preliminary/Pre-Screening Round will be invited to the Final Live Auditions Round on Saturday, March 7, 2026. The live auditions will take place between 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM.
- Contestants accepted to the Final Live Auditions Round must indicate their intention to compete in the Final Round no later than Friday, February 3, 2026, 5:00 PM. Contestants who accept the invitation to compete in the Final Round will be notified by email as to their live audition time on March 7.
- For rules on accompanists, see Accompanists below.

- Beethoven Concerto No. 4 or 5
- Brahms Concerto No. 1 or 2
- Liszt Totentanz
- MacDowell Concerto No. 2
- Prokofiev Concerto No. 3
- Rachmaninoff Concerto No. 1, 2, or 3
- Ravel Concerto in G Major
- Saint-Saens Concerto No. 2
- Shostakovich Concerto No. 1 or 2
- Tchaikovsky Concerto No. 1

Location

- The auditions will be held at Voertman Hall, College of Music, University of North Texas College of Music, 415 Avenue C, Denton, Texas 76201.

Entry Fee

- There is a non-refundable application fee of $115, payable through Acceptrd.

Accompanists

- In the Final Live Auditions Round, contestants may provide their own pianist or use an experienced collaborative pianist provided through the Competition. If using a Competition pianist, a $100 fee will be required by the acceptance deadline, February 3, 2026. This is to cover the live audition as well as provide a one-hour rehearsal with the pianist on Friday, March 8, the day before the audition. The accompanist fee is paid through ACCEPTD and must be received by February 3, 2024. This fee is NON-REFUNDABLE.

- Rehearsal with pianist: FRIDAY March 6, 2026. Contestants using the Symphony Accompanist are required to arrive on Thursday, March 5, 2026. NO EXCEPTIONS. Contestants using the Competition accompanist will not be rescheduled if they insist on arriving on Friday and thus miss their scheduled rehearsal time. There will be no refund of the accompanist fee once the February 3rd deadline has passed. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in losing part or all of your scheduled Friday rehearsal time. The Competition cannot reschedule rehearsals, accompanists and rehearsal spaces to accommodate flight delays or cancellations. Loss of rehearsal time will not result in any refund of the accompanist fee.

Transportation and Accommodation

- Transportation and accommodations are the responsibility of the contestants and of the winner performing on the season opening 2026-2027 Symphony Series concert.

Reception

- The Symphony and the College of Music will hold a reception in the Green Room, adjacent to Voertman Hall, after the event on March 7.
