

Pianist Mi Sun Cheong is a doctoral student in piano performance at the University of North Texas, where she also serves as a teaching assistant, under the tutelage of Dr. Pamela Paul. She holds both bachelor's and master's degrees in piano performance from Seoul National University, graduating with honors.

A versatile solo and collaborative artist, Mi Sun has performed in South Korea, the Czech Republic, Germany, and the United States. Her collaborative work spans a broad range of repertoire, with a specialization in vocal literature and opera, as well as violin and viola works. She is an active collaborative pianist in the DFW area, serving as a staff pianist for numerous recitals, festivals, and competitions.